through evolution, the only other way to obtain a new job is through the card draws (カード召喚). And while they only have one purpose, there are a few things you need to know about the various ways to increase or decrease the quantities you can get: From Monday to Saturday, the Exploration (探索) or side story maps offer one Skill Seed bonus. This Japanese page has a full list of these kinds of abilities: Fusing with a Fractal Card. Transform your starter Warrior, Ranger, and Mage into a Paladin, Viking, and Devout! There are also some versatile jobs that have more than one element set such as the Berserker (パーサーカー) or Rogue (ローグ) where the second set usually includes Light or Dark or even both. Exercise caution when using these types of jobs as switching to another element set could mean a reduction in stats. See screenshot below for an example of the Grudge Ranger that has met all conditions for evolution except card level. I just played normally and went to every area that I could and eventually, new routes appeared that lead to the ones by the X's. You get the option to follow someone after a set of battles (if they're not already on your Follow List, obviously) or when their Wal wanders up to yours when you're idling on a map. Oh, a word of warning from experience: When attempting to level up an ability of an event-only card, do NOT take the chance with a 90% success rate. I have anecdotes (or horror stories) of doing that. Finally, level caps are a difference as well since all cards can only grow so much before they hit their maximum level. Be conscious of how you fight. Can I start a battle without choosing a Rental Card (レンタルカード)? The search screen for available parties to join. Its sole purpose is to allow the player to freely switch between all of a job's outfits without sacrificing stats. Generally, Fast Learner cards cannot be augmented but there are exceptions. Revival Fusion appears on the screen where you select the base card When the box is checked off, the Revival Ticket icon shows up along with the quantity of tickets needed to fully develop a card's ability and Skill Seeds. These eggs can help you in various ways. The unlocked skill is retained during an evolution and it gains another Extra Skill when it's changed into 4-star as indicated by the 1/4 next to the eye icon. You can technically leave the slots as they are as well but you'll have to be guick on the button to start the battle or else a random user might end up tagging along. You'll see most players with 3-star and 4-star cards since they're the ones that provide a bit of a passive boost in parameters (such as an increase of 3% to HP) and allow for a lot of damage when their levels and abilities are maxed out. There are 4 kinds of roles and it's important to understand how each of them work. These areas are 砂の堤2 and 波うつ砂丘2. I'm supposing that being able to put in cards with fully maxed out abilities and Skillseeds is a bug. It'll cost another 3 Mystic Tablets though. drop material cards. Yes, you will be penalized if you're battling in a spot that has a risk level of 1 (i.e. with a light blue circle around it). I've circled where Active Job Change unlocks. What is a Custom Skill (カスタムスキル)? This is due to an option which disables job models from auto-loading when switching decks. To remove cards from storage, use the Bank (倉庫) button on the bottom left. Even though it's a promotional draw meant for new players, anyone can participate. In my case, my Red Mage only has pages 1, 2 and 5 complete. Having cards with high Break power and ones that can throw debuffs onto the targets like Break Defense Down (プレイク防御力ダウン) help get the job done faster. Before going into a battle, I always check to see what element or elements enemies is/are strong against and then choose my job based on that information. If you don't want to wait until a certain day and have some Magicite (魔石) to spare, there's a item in the Item Shop (アイテムショップ) known as the Pleiades Pass (プレアデス・パス) which grants access to all islands for 24 hours. For the Japanese version, I highly recommend the Altema wiki. A common one is Boost (プースト). Please note that this special collection of gifts can only be purchased once every 30 days, and that the gifts are subject to change. The Sub Deck is also the only place you'll see the Swap button. In such a case, a support card with Boost (ブースト) can help. Additionally, they can be used to remove their corresponding ailments and debuffs. 100 Magicite will be used to increase it by 5 spaces and 1000 Magicite will get you an additional 50. The maximum is 8 slots (which means the user will have to spend 40,000 yen). Rare material cards, Growstar, Gigantuar Bulbs, and God Rays are needed to evolve cards to 4-star and 5-star rarity. The Skill Cards obtained from this map greatly enhances each job. Yes, Phoenix Downs and Elixirs in batches of 11 in the Item Shop (アイテムショップ). How do I level up my character and cards quickly? They can also be useful for offsetting innate weaknesses that certain offensive cards may have such as low Break Power. Tips & Tricks All About Cards Selecting Another Deck for Battle Battle Tips Conserving Battery Life Resources This section is a list of links to useful sites. Both options require Magicite; 100 for 10 spots, and 1000 for 10 spots, and 1000 for 10 spots, and 1000 for 10 spots. I'm guessing they specify 西暦 which is Western/Gregorian calendar since some people use Lunar? What is the Hall of Fame (ホール・オブ・フェイム)? These types grant an experience bonus when used as fodder during card fusion. Tap the wing icon first and then choose Quick Start if you don't mind having a random Rental Card. Cards with the same ability name are necessary for levelling up a card's ability. When that happens, it can then be used to level up abilities of 3-star cards or higher that share the same ability name. Getting a duplicate card from the a summon draw will provide you with 2 Celestriads (スリースターズ) and increase the job level by 4. Run the page under an auto-translator to get the gist of it. You have the option to use x1 2-star Draw Coin or x10 1-star coins for a 2-star Skill Draw. Cards with the + sign are highlighted with the yellow square. Always complete daily missions for their useful rewards! In the comments section, Raxx425 asked about whether or not there was a good way to farm for Magicite. Once the 15-minute countdown runs out, the fight will begin a lot of points score-wise but when faced with a difficult enemy (or the dreadful large bombs in chapter 3 of the story map that may instantly kill Wal when it explodes), don't hesitate to use it at any point during the fight to quickly reduce its HP and Break gauge. Each Egg has a different function: Heart Egg (ハートエッグ) - Increases the chances of Health/pink elements appearing. The maximum Skillseeds a 1-star can give is 12. ② What is a Custom Skill (カスタムスキル)? Experience Up (経験値アップ) Awakened Auto Ability (覚醒オートアビリティ) on an ability card is another way to hasten the levelling process. In some maps, kill count or completing a set number of nodes also become objectives. You can refer to each lock by tapping on them to see what the requirement is. Side note: The page estimates that boss enemies (those really large ones) have a higher Magic Stone drop rate. Do not fret if you're only getting repeat job cards or jobs you don't want! When you clear Chapter 3 Part 2 (第3章 後編), all 3 starter jobs will get a class change. ^^ . Alternatively, you can use the Auto-Sell Filter next to it to select which elements you want to automatically sell off (such as all fire cards). For example, make use of Target View to target an enemy that will get you the most of a cone/wifi symbol attack. ^^; 5th page of the Skill Panel 2nd for the Onion Knight! You can get a feel for the Samurai when all panels are unlocked. I believe the Debarrier (デバリア) icon that's in the form of a hexagon (it's a skill an enemy Behemoth (ベヒーモス), not its card, possesses) can only be removed with the Barrier (バリア) skill that has the same icon shape. Do be aware that equipping or selecting Rental Cards that your job can't use is useless although you can technically use them if Prismatic element orbs are available. If you want more of Fire, for example, switch to a job that can use it and put in more than 1 card that can provide those Seeds. There are 4 pages of Rental Cards you can peruse through. Skill Cards are divided into three categories: General (汎用), Special (特殊), and Job (ジョブ). (Watch out of those x0.2 "bonuses"!) apply to the Japanese version only. There are two ways you can set cards to auto-sell after a battle: on the card itself or from the Card Catalog menu. Sometimes, making them into an Element Drive to force out other elements may be a better choice. Additionally, they can also be used to develop other 3-stars that share the same ability name. Usually it requires defeating enemies for a certain number of items. Why should I follow (フォロー) other players? The Daily Mission objective is found at the top of the SOCIAL menu. The middle example shows that 1 move is carried over from Turn 1 because only 1 attack was performed. Got Skill Seed Up and replacing Magic Up with it. Certain cards have an Esuna (エスナ) Extra Skill which can eliminate the most recent ailment/debuff that's been put on Wal. The Cait Sith card has it as its second Extra Skill. Please note that the Hall of Fame requires the summoned Job Card versions and NOT the starter jobs received from the tutorial. These caps enjoy a raise when a story chapter is cleared, however.
Players can add up to 6 additional levels to their ability cards at any time by using Ability Tickets. I think it's best to try each one out for a while to get a feel for them and then decide what you want to specialize in. With the way I play, I pretty much ignore the Mage despite its superior magic power. How do I access the other paths at the Coliseum in Chapter 2 of the Story? Select the bottom option from the Quest Menu. In the example above, both the monster card and summoned ability card have the same ability name. What's Card Augment (クラスチェンジ)? For a Job Skill Card, you will have to ensure that you have 6 Crystals on hand before it can be placed. Prismatic Egg (レインボーエッグ) - Increases the chances of Prismatic Elements appearing by 12%. It'll look like this: Class Change!!! Class change in this case is like ranking up. As for routes with X's, they are permanent obstructions, but there are always alternate ways to get to the areas behind them. As far as I can remember, none of the ones in Chapter 2 of the story required anything special. Like regular Auto-Abilities, there are some Awakened Auto Abilities that come with a percentage such as Gil Up (ギルアプ). It also increases the amount of Gil received by 30%. The caption in the image below is regarding changes made in the August 30th, 2015 update. For Sunday, all Seeds enjoy an increase. In order to unlock this, your Warrior will have to obtain a score of at least 2,000,000 in battle. For example, to begin the Ranger route, I put this together. The stats you see in these images have already been altered by Custom Skills though: This is a sample of a main deck I had for the quests. Using common monster cards to upgrade a 4-star Lakshmi card. The job, 仙術士, which was added later, is also able to use Warrior cards to their fullest capabilities. And naturally, 1-star cards max out much faster than other ones. The former type seems to also have some other restrictions such as enemy is in the front or back row as I've seen the attack MISS a large enemy that was standing right in the middle of smaller ones. Use them to manipulate what elements appear when you attack. What is the 1,000,000 Gil Medal (勲章) in the Item Shop? This is rarely happens though. In order to make use of the latter, the host would have to provide you with it. That's for your birth month. Thankfully, it offers some options to reduce consumption. For example, a card like Lich Dual (リッチ=デュアル), which is a mini boss-type monster encountered from Chapter 2 onward, only has 3 Extra Skills even when it's evolved to 4-stars. I believe that takes the least amount of cards to develop will be favoured. and What's Card Augment (クラスチェンジ)? Gacha that provide multiple cards always ask for 6 tickets or 3,000 Magicite. In order for the the 4-star card to work its magic, the base success rate needs to be 80% or higher. Tip regarding low risk level areas: If you place 1 or 2 low level cards in your deck — such as making a level 100 deck into level 70 — the risk levels of the map will change accordingly. The option to use Openers is on the bottom left. Like 1-star cards, all cards of this rarity do not possess Auto-Abilities and may carry 1 or 2 Extra Skill. You may consider evolving them to 3-stars to get the most out of them; they gain an Auto-Ability through the upgrade too. My focus is on Ranger and then Warrior jobs since I like using them the most. The Japanese version doesn't allow players to buy any of these items or in-game currency. How do I get jobs that use Light (光) or Dark (闇) elements? It will switch to the storage screen which has a orange background. They are additional skills a card can gain which offer useful perks like increasing the amount of damage the card can do to an enemy that's weak against its element, or being able to use a skill again without waiting for a cooldown to clear. The latter area only has God Rays and 4-star Fractal Card drops so they're the ideal spots to fight at if you can survive the battles. How do use the Card Bank (カード倉庫)? Players can also make use of the aforementioned Ability Tickets to speed up the card developing process with MAX Boost. Well, it felt like that with mage jobs. However, in order for them to join up, they will need the Party ID that is generated after you complete the party setup. Summon Tickets and Magicite are not available as rewards on global servers. You may also wish to consider putting the Grow Egg (グロエング) in your deck as it comes with 2 Experience Up 10% Auto-Abilities. One of the most important things about farming Seeds is to fight in higher difficulty battles. The Cactuar card draws are excluded. Of course, my success also comes from having useful cards. To adjust these, go into ETC, and then choose Config (コンフィグ). It will get to a point where low rarity (such as 1-star or 2-star) cards will end up only giving 5% success. Note: The screenshot below was taken after I made adjustments to the search filters since the initial options didn't bring up any results. You can either use 1 or 6 Draw Coins at a time depending on how many you have, or you can use a fixed amount of 1-star and 2-star coins with 2-star and 3-star Skill Draws. There doesn't seem to be any specific trick to it other than going about a map fighting battles. The bottom three are available 24/7, every day of the year. The strength of Mages naturally lies in their high Magic stats but their physical strength and health can be lacking. (See the button with the double arrows on the right side.) Battles are no longer painfully slow. How do I get boss monsters to reappear? ^^; I'm still working on finishing up page 3. Incidentally, finishing all battles in the arena is the only way to complete Chapter 2. The Hall of Fame is a high difficulty map that provides challenges to specific jobs that came out not long after launch known as Job Quests (ジョプクエスト). What do the icons and numbers on a Skill Card (スキルカード) mean? Following other players enables you to see their progress if they're on the same map as you and their Rental Cards (see next question) will be among the first two on each page that you can select from before each fight. Switching the game to Hard difficulty can assist with this. To do this, go ETC then Config (コンフィグ). This is because despite finding a spot where a target monster will most likely appear, they don't always drop their cards. You can join any spots that are specific to your job role or ones that are Free. Rangers are kind of in the middle ground between Warriors and Mages in that they don't dish out heavy physical damage nor have much in defense, but in exchange, they have strong Critical hit ratings and decent Magic skills. In order for the change to occur, these conditions must be met: the card's level must have reached the required level as indicated by Necessary Level (必要なレベル) under the card's name Skillseed level must be at max you have enough Gil for the process For North America and Europe (and probably other regions as well), the level and Skillseed conditions have been removed. Do note that weapons, job evolutions, and job cards for evolved/advanced jobs like the Knight and Hunter can drastically affect parameter ratings! Should I bother developing all job types? The option to change it will be made available upon the next time you start up the game since it requires additional data download (if changing from Standard (標準画質) to High Definition). Important!!!: Don't do this if you're sitting on one of the small circles unless you want to fight your way back to it. To apply a Skill Card, go to the Custom Skill (カスタムスキル) menu through a Deck and their animations. Having different rarities is all right so a 3-star and 4-star can be used in the fusion. Only the smaller ones received damage. I threw a ton of Break power and some magic. Rare, special abilities can also result from a fusion with Fractal Cards. A Job Class Change grants a second set of skill panels appropriately named Skill Panel 2nd (スキルパネル2nd) and another, more advanced job to a base job. To do so, the player must possess Skill Cards (スキルカード) which can be obtained by participating in the job quests in the Hall of Fame (ホール・オブ・フェイム) or by using Draw Coins (ドロウコイン) at the Skill Draw (スキルドロウ) shop. What is the difference between MAX Boost (ブーストリバイバル) and Boost Fusion (リバイバル合成)? You obtain them from finishing a set of battles but you may also get them from login bonuses and promotions too. It's recommended that either slider or both be in the middle (Standard) so the battery drain won't be as heavy. Be wary that no Phoenix Downs or Rental Cards are allowed when heading into these kinds of fights. Also, do not bother going to nodes with no Cactuar icon since there will be no Cactuars there. (Xエレメントを使用せよ!) Draw element orbs X-number of times. The Altema wiki provides the locations of where most cards can be found. However, Skillseeds and Crystals consumed will not be refunded should you opt to do either action. If you put in another or a new card in the same slot, you'll have to fork over Skillseeds or Crystals again. However, there are some exceptions like the Terra Battle ones. Due to the inclusion of the Magicite Distiller, obtaining the premium currency is not possible in the international versions by simply fighting battles. The screencap below points them out: The hard version of the second exploration map may also be considered as farming locations. Locked cards can't be selected. It's sold as a set of 6 for 500 Magicite and has a purchase limit of 5 sets per day. How do I access areas blocked off by locks or by X's? The 改 (literally "revision") character at the end of a banner title. Traditionally, this is an indicator that the draw has NO JOB CARD. Hello to global players! ^_^/ Many of the details and prices found in this FAQ currently ONLY reflect the Japanese version. Promotions and events may also occur where limited time special maps or increased multipliers are added. This can be done on any screen where you see the icons. It's unfortunate but for the time being, the only way to get the Growstar is through the First Item Gift from the Mobius Gift Box (メビウスギフトボックス), a completion reward for logging in everyday for an entire month, or whenever the developer feels like handing it out. Auto-Ability is stackable. In this screencap, only Silver Openers can be used since I don't own any Gold ones. Pop up window confirming the usage of the Bronze Opener. Magicite can also be found in chests throughout the many maps in the game, obtained as spoils from enemies, and from daily missions. Cards obtained from a random card draw, or regular map monsters evolved from 3-star to 4-star, may have an extra spot under the Auto Abilities page that can be filled with a skill of your choice which are known as Awakened Auto Abilities. This item retails for 500 Magicite (魔石). Important!: Before starting any co-op battles, please ensure your Multiplayer Decks are ready. The reason is that you get a higher score AND more damage is dealt when using its weakness on it during Break. If two cards of the same name but different rarity are used in a fusion, the ability and card levels of the lower rarity will transfer to the higher rarity if they outrank the high level one. It's a common gimmick in free-to-play, social games where you can select another player's character, card, item, etc. On the other hand, Job Exceed only levels up the card once. (The job model is the Imperial Knight despite the fact that the decks belong to the Orion and Last Hunter. What is the Spirit Grove (妖精の部屋)? Oddly, although there are specifically labelled slots, General Skill Cards can be placed anywhere on a Panel page. I have no idea how to fix that. Each Fractal Card has an element and based on the element, they give 1 out of 4 or 5 auto possible abilities. This seems to only affect those that debuff enemies (such as causing defense to decrease) and have low Break Power. What are Openers (オープナー)? Global currently has smaller multipliers and greater ranges per score tier. The Onion Knight card has a limit break level of 1 In the image above, the level 1 Onion Knight ability card received an additional level through the limit break feature. This means you can equip or rent a 4-star one too and use their Cure ability separately. The Denfamico Gamer wiki tells me that the missing cards are 3 Wind God Rays and a Wild Flower (which is dropped by Ochu). Boost Fusion (リバイバル合成) is available under the card fusion menu and functions as an alternative to using ability cards to raise Skill Seed and ability levels. The FAQ's mostly up-to-date for the Japanese version except for the Multiplayer section (some of those changes can be found at this link: . No Gold ones. It's a feature that allows additional levels to be added to decks. The category shown in the image is for Parameter. The rarrity of the card seems to be dependent on the current month's Mobius Gift Box but it's usually 3-star or 4-star. Unfortunately, not all support cards have this Skill. While in the Card Bank screen, simply tap on the cards you wish to put into storage. Why do I only have 2 moves per turn? Extra Skill 3 = Ability level 3 or 4 or higher Extra Skill 3 = Ability level 6 or 10 Extra Skill 3 = Ability level 6 or 10 . 5-star Moogle Charm Both Mog Amulets can be purchased from the Item Shop (アイテムショップ) for 1000 Magicite each. Cruising around in spots that have a risk level of 1 or 2 (light blue or green circles) won't do much and you may even end up receiving LESS Seeds than you should be getting. ^^ So far, these are the types of missions available: Defeat X-amount of enemies.
